The transposition to digital: Creative education in online spaces

03 July 2020
10:00 - 13:00
Blackboard Collaborate

Join us for a pop-up, pop-in mini 'converence' (a conference by conversation) discussing innovation in Designing for Digital Delivery. Developed as a digital drop-in webinar room, delegates can drop in for a series of half hour 'windows' over half a day. We have planned a series of themed conversations designed to stimulate discussion timed to start and end every half an hour.
