

Value of CHEAD Membership

CHEAD provides a voice for and on behalf of its members and art, design, creative media, and related disciplines in the UK.

Advocacy

Support a voice for the sector

CHEAD has a strong track record in representing the sector at key events and through consultation responses on behalf of members.

Contribute to a collective championing of AMD co-ordinated by CHEAD and working with key partners on behalf of members.

Benefit from joining forces with partner organisations for advocacy and knowledge exchange on behalf of the wider creative industries sector.

Networking

Network at our regular sector themed meetings and events with peers from across the UK.

Benefit from a free place at our Annual Conference, the event of the year for members to inform and network.

Benefit from access to our members only discussion forum with topics including: graduate shows, assessment, research and online teaching.

Benefit from unlimited staff numbers who can be added to the CHEAD mailing list.

Specialist programme and resources

Receive regular monthly policy updates for all nominated institutional staff in a fast-changing policy landscape.

Support your staff

Our Leadership Programme provides leadership seminars run by peers for aspiring academic leaders.

Join our specialist networks

CHEAD supports a Research Alliance, a Gallery Alliance and a Subject Association Alliance.

Access all the latest sector related material and resources via our knowledge hub.

Value for money

CHEAD membership fees are tiered, starting at just £650 per annum. This means member institutions pay according to their number of ADM students. Don't forget that 2020/21 membership fees have been frozen for a third year running.